SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER APRIL 28, 2018

"Peace be with you! Put your finger here and see My hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Do not doubt, but believe."

Be a witness to the Divinity of Jesus Christ! Thus did the ancient Church speak to the newly baptized on this Sunday. Since their Baptism on Holy Saturday these converts wore white robes. Now in their everyday dress they must go out as witnesses that "Christ is the Truth" God the "Father bore witness" to this at Christ's Baptism by "water," God the "Word" became our "Blood" witness on the Cross; God the "Spirit" gave witness when, by Him Jesus was conceived in the womb of Mary. Yes, this is the triple "testimony of God" which we, too, must witness unto others — that "Jesus is God".

To the "doubting Thomases" of all future ages, Jesus gave a new proof of His Divinity in today's Gospel, "written that you may believe. . .and that believing you may live life. "Confirmation perfects baptismal grace; it is the sacrament which gives the Holy Spirit in order to root us more deeply in the divine filiation, incorporate us more firmly into Christ, strengthen our bond with the Church, associate us more closely with her mission and help us bear witness to the Christian faith in words accompanied by deeds."

APRIL 27, 2019

This Saturday, Bishop Terry R. LaValley, Bishop of Ogdensburg, will confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on eight of our parishioners. One of the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church, like Baptism and Holy Orders, a person who receives Confirmation receives, in addition to grace, a sacramental character or "seal" by which the person receives a sacramental configuration to Christ and His Church, brought about by the Spirit. It remains forever as a positive disposition for grace, a promise and guarantee of divine protection. These three sacraments can never be repeated. The following prayer is offered by the Bishop, as he extends his hands over the confirmands:

All powerful God, Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ, by water and the Holy Spirit, You freed Your sons and daughters from sin and gave them new life. Send Your Holy Spirit upon them to be their helper and guide. Give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. Fill them with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRATITUDE

Gratitude unlocks the fullness of life. It turns what we have into enough, and more. It turns denial into acceptance, chaos to clarity. It can turn a meal into a feast, a house into a home, a stranger into a friend. Gratitude makes sense of our past, brings peace for today, and creates a vision for tomorrow.

APRIL 29, 2018 FEAST OF ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA

Every day You give us this food, the Eucharist, showing us yourself in the sacrament of the altar,,, And what has done this? Your mercy! (St. Catherine of Siena)

MAY 1, 2018 FEAST OF ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER

St. Joseph faithfully practiced the carpenter's trade. He is the shining example for all workers. (Canticle Antiphon for today.)

PRO-LIFE MARCH IN OTTAWA – THURSDAY, MAY 9, 2019

Every year Pro-Life sponsors a March to Parliament for the purpose of demonstrating displeasure with the Canadian laws concerning the Unborn. The announcement concerning buses for this event is pending. For those who cannot make the march, the Knights of Columbus Council 11531 of Cornwall will have an Hour of Prayer to support the efforts of the marchers and to pray for the Unborn and their mothers. Choosing life over death is a community event and needs the support of the community in words, actions, and deeds. The hour of prayer will take place at St. Francis de Sales Church, Second Street in Cornwall, on Monday, May 6, 2019 at 7:00 PM. Please plan to attend.

NIAWEN:KOWA FOR ALL WHO HELPED DURING HOLY WEEK

especially our faithful Altar Servers: Megan, Phillip and Morgan, Kenia and Analeyna, Mia and Caroline; Robert and Lisa Roundpoint for assisting with the blessing of the fire on Holy Saturday; the Liturgical Ministry readers and lectors; the Altar Rosary Society for the Easter flowers (arranging/purchasing); the Mohawk choir and to Minerva White for her many years of service as our Music Ministry Chair on her last day as Church Organist April 28th; Cole Philips for music and singing the Exultet during Easter Vigil; and to Dolly for hospitality and for the Easter Eggs. There were many others who volunteered in many ways to make our Easter Celebration a huge success which also include the sacristans, greeters, church cleaners, ushers, counters, pastoral care visitors and many others. GOD BLESS!

LIFT UP IN PRAYER ALL WHO ARE ALONE,
