THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER, MAY 5, 2019

"We must obey God rather than human beings. . .

As they left the council, they rejoiced that they were considered worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name." Acts 40

The Apostles in the Acts really do some surprising things. Peter and the apostles have been put in prison for proclaiming that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. Yet, they were most happy to obey God rather than men. They felt "worthy to be arrested, threatened, and flogged by their own people." Acts 5"41) They realized that Christ has died. Christ has risen. What greater proof was needed to convince them of God's love for them?" Go to the Gospel for today. This time we see Peter affirming three times His love for Jesus. Was it merely because he had already betrayed Jesus three times and needed assurance of forgiveness? Probably not. When Jesus forgives, He forgives and forgets even before we ask Him. In gratitude, we too must say, "I too will join to feed Your sheep. I too will serve. Because you are beneficent and good and gracious to me, I too, will reach out to all the people around me. I will serve them - will serve them so that they will know that love is unconditional. Love always goes out and asks for nothing in return."
