SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER – MAY 26, 2019

“If you loved Me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father.” (John 14: 28)

As we come to the end of the Easter season, Jesus tells us that He is going away. He is returning to the Father. His disciples are sad.
They expected Jesus to remain with them tangibly and forever. Now
He tells them that He must return to the Father, but will send them the Holy Spirit who will remain with them forever.

Saint Pope John Paul II reminds us to “Keep Christ in your heart and you will recognize His face in every person.”

Blessed be You, most gracious God in all your words – and works forever:

Your Spirit hovers – and we are created.

Your Spirit whispers –and we are comforted

Your Spirit flickers as tongues of fire, and we are reclaimed from sin and selfishness.

We remember Jesus – Your beloved One.

We remember His life –and what He said.

We remember His love – and what He did.

We remember that He gathers with us now:

Sharing His life--and His love. Sharing His hope –and His dreams.

Sharing His Spirit and heart with us –and His truth.

Now –and then—He comes to us, gathering us in His love, holding us dear in His heart.

Now—and then –He says: I am with you always.

I share my very life and heart with you.

I share my love – my Spirit with you.

My hopes and dreams – I give to you.

You are My salt for the earth. You are My light for the world.

Now with confidence in Your infinite kindness, and wonder at Your trust in us, we ask Your Spirit to be upon us --

Your Spirit of wisdom – courage—of fidelity—and love,

Your Spirit—who helps us to be ministers after Your very heart and hope.

MEMORIAL DAY – MAY 27

Let us remember our veterans who have put their life on the line so that we can be free. Deceased veterans. Living veterans. Those serving in the military today. Lord Jesus, watch over all veterans. Hold them safely in the palm of Your hand. Walk with them in Your strength. Help those who are wounded warriors. Bring comfort when they are troubled; hope when they are weary. Remind them of Your love. Merciful Lord, bring a lasting peace into our world. Heal our hearts and help all nations find ways to live in harmony so that blood is shed no more. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Prince of Peace. AMEN.

THE FEAST OF THE VISITATION OF MARY – MAY 31

“Blessed are you among women.” Elizabeth’s greeting to Mary when she visited her has been preserved in our Hail Mary. On this feast let us pray each Hail Mary with the great love and devotion of Mary’s cousin Elizabeth.

ASCENSION THURSDAY – JUNE 2

*“Behold I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”
(Matthew 28)*

People experience departures every day. Spouses leave for work. Children leave for school. People at the airport leave for vacation. Family members leave for military service, going off for war with the unspoken fear of the what if! The Feast of the Ascension is different. Jesus Christ, Son of God, departs for Heaven. He promised to send His Holy Spirit. Because of the Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus into heaven, I can be closer to Him than to the person sitting next to me. Every time I receive Holy Communion, I receive Jesus – Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. I become part of the Body of Christ. Jesus is always with me through the Spirit. Every day.
