PENTECOST SUNDAY

Seven weeks after that memorable resurrection Sabbath, the disciples were still very fear filled. Huddled together, hidden behind locked doors, they waited – fearful and faithful. Jesus had asked them to wait until he sent the spirit. Imagine the scene as these newly confident disciples poured out a message that each listener heard in their own language. This is an important gift. A story is shared one way with a co-worker and another when speaking with a dear and trusted friend. There is one manner of speaking with young children and another with adults. Many parents wisely use different words to explain the same concept to each of their children, During conversations that are especially important, the presence of the Spirit will offer the words that will be best understood by the listener. Each year, 50 days after Easter, we celebrate Pentecost. We too must wait for the renewal of the Spirit within us. Listening attentively to the quiet guidance of the Spirit, we discover a new found confidence. We delight in an ever-deepening capacity to experience love, joy and peace. We acknowledge, with gratitude, our growing patience, kindness, gentleness and self-control. This day, may we be open to all the gifts offered to us. Blessed in word and sacrament, we begin anew.

BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH May 24, 2021: Mary, the Mother of the Church was instituted by Pope Francis on February 11, 2018 – the 160th anniversary of the apparition of Mary at Lourdes. The title "Mother of the Church" was bestowed on the Blessed Virgin Mary during the Second Vatican Council by Pope Paul VI who declared that "the Mother of God should be further honoured and invoked by the entire Christian people by the tenderest of titles." This movable feast is observed on the Monday following Pentecost and takes precedence over other memorials which may fall on the same day.

MEMORIAL DAY – MAY 31 Let us remember our veterans who have put their life on the line so that we can be free. Deceased veterans. Living veterans. Those serving in the military today. Lord Jesus, watch over all veterans. Hold them safely in the palm of Your hand. Walk with them in Your strength. Help those who are wounded warriors. Bring comfort when they are troubled; hope when they are weary. Remind them of Your love. Merciful Lord, bring a lasting peace into our world. Heal our hearts and help all nations find ways to live in harmony so that blood is shed no more. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Prince of Peace. AMEN.

UPCOMING CELEBRATIONS: Feast of the Holy Trinity, May 30th, Memorial Day May 31st, Corpus Christi June 3rd, Father's Day June 20th, St. John the Baptise June 24th

CORRECTED VERSION: LET US DREAM: The Path to a Better Future: Pope Francis in Laudato Si' stated: "I urgently appeal... for a new dialogue about how we are sharing the future of our planet." (LS#14). Join us for three evenings from 7pm-9pm via Zoom as we gather together with hope to help us as individuals and as communities to learn from God's earth how to be more sustainable and to move significantly forward with practical solutions to promote God's beautiful, sustainable world. Each evening will include prayer, music, stories, insight and sharing as we commit to care for God's creation! This three-day event is co-sponsored by the Roman Catholic Dioceses of Syracuse and Ogdensburg. TUESDAY, May 25 with Dr. Gerry Gacioch, Catholic Climate Ambassador, WEDNESDAY, May 26 with Dr. Curt Stager, Paul Smiths College. Opening Prayer by Bishop Douglas Lucia, THURSDAY, May 27 with Ms. Dina Fiorile. Opening Prayer by Bishop Terry R. LaValley. REGISTER ONLINE BY MAY 23 at www.rcdony.org/dream For more information: Theresa May at tmay@syrdio.org or Marika Donders at mdonders@rcdony.org

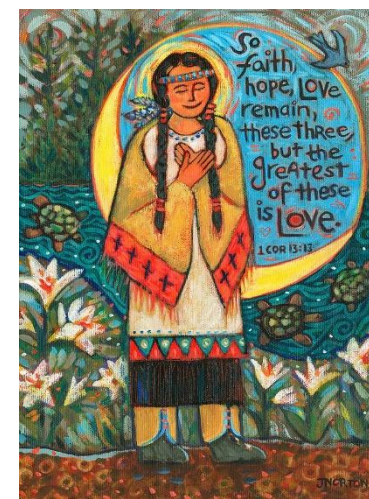

PRAYER BEFORE WORK TO ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER O Glorious Saint Joseph, model of all those who are devoted to labor, obtain for me the grace to work in a spirit of penance for the expiation of my many sins; to work conscientiously, putting the call of duty above my natural inclinations; to work with thankfulness and joy, considering it an honor to employ and develop by means of labor the gifts received from God; to work with order, peace, moderation, and patience, never shrinking from weariness and trials; to work above all with purity of intention and detachment from self, keeping unceasingly before my eyes death and the account that I must give of time lost, talents unused, good omitted, and vain complacency in success, so fatal to the work of God. All for Jesus, all through Mary, all after thy example, O Patriarch, Saint Joseph. Such shall be my watch-word in life and in death. Amen. (Composed by Pope St. Pius X)

(Jimmy) Cook. May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

DEAR SAINT KATERI, You know that our life passes quickly and is without meaning if it is without God. Help us, through your prayer, that we might open our hearts to God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and thus know the joy of living in the peace of Jesus who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Help us through your prayer so that we might persevere in our own prayer and in the desire for God.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP: Let the Holy Spirit fill the earth this Pentecost! Mark your calendar for the coming Event: Let Us Dream: The Path to a Better Future on May 25, 26, 27 from 7-9. Event is co-sponsored by the Dioceses of Syracuse and Ogdensburg Laudato Si Committees. Come and pray, learn and discuss with other Catholics and seekers to create a better future for ourselves and for the yet- to- be born. Check Diocesan web page for more information on how to register at www.rcdony.org/dream
