MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

St. Mathew tells us that en route to a special meeting with Jesus 40 days after his resurrection, some of the disciples doubted. Yes, God's family members no doubt: sitting in Mass we too might question Jesus' omnipotence. How then did so many disciples come to be martyred for proclaiming the Christian Gospel? What shifted Jesus' followers from doubt to death defying evangelization? Jesus answered their doubts and questions by acknowledging the Holy Trinity. The disciples needed to know who Jesus was, what they were to do, and where he would be when they needed him. Jesus, as God the Son, told them of his authority in heaven and on earth. Then, speaking for God the Father, he counselled them to go to all people and make them disciples as well, baptizing them into, and teaching them the ways of, God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. "I am with you always: was Jesus' reassurance of his constant presence, prefiguring the coming of God the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Jesus came near to his eleven on a mountain to reveal the might - in the same way Jesus comes near to us in Holy Eucharist, to reassure and empower us by the Three in One and One in Three. Today are we prepared for Christ Jesus' missa meeting, his sending us out into the world, for Mass?

DEAR SAINT KATERI, You know that our life passes quickly and is without meaning if it is without God. Help us, through your prayer, that we might open our hearts to God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and thus know the joy of living in the peace of Jesus who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Help us through your prayer so that we might persevere in our own prayer and in the desire for God.

THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI also known as the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, is a Roman Catholic liturgical solemnity celebrating the real presence of the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ in the elements of the Eucharist. The feast of Corpus Christi focuses on the Holy Eucharist, emphasizing the joy of the Eucharist being the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ. The feast is liturgically celebrated on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday.

Let us pray: "Oh Lord Jesus Christ, we come before You today, we thank You for the gift of Your Holy Body and Blood through which we get strengthened body, soul and mind. We solemnly pledge that we will offer You our undivided love and also service to our brothers and sisters as it is Your Holy will. We pray this in the Name of the Father, and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen."

I LIFT UP MY NEEDS IN PRAYER Joseph, with Jesus and Mary, you knew hunger, uncertainty, and illness. You turned your heart to God to lift up your needs and those of your family. In faith you accepted the Father's response as events unfolded. Be with me today as I offer my requests to the Father. Joseph, let me recognize God's will as I open my hands to accept what God bestows in loving kindness. With tenderness, God fills creation with life and love. Open my eyes to the wonders that God works without ceasing. Let me learn the true intention behind my request so that I may discover within myself the lowly one that God commends. Amen.

THE VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

MAY 31, 2021 This feast commemorating the meeting between Mary and Elizabeth, has been celebrated in the Roman liturgy since the 8th century. Found in Luke's Gospel, this event is one of rejoicing in the wonders God has done, as both the barren Elizabeth and the young Virgin Mary find themselves with child. Each women experience an outpouring of the Holy Spirit: Elizabeth's response is to declare Mary and her child blessed, and Mary's response in the hymn of praise, the Magnificat.

PRAYER FOR MEMORIAL DAY: God of power and mercy, you destroy war and put down earthly pride. Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters. Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP:

What could Trinity Sunday have to teach each of us about responsible environmental stewardship? Perhaps the most profound yet self-evident message about Trinity is that all life is about relationship. "Everything is interconnected, and that genuine care for our own lives and relationship with nature is inseparable."(Laudato Si) When we eat earth-healthy food, get proper rest, exercise both our bodies and minds, fill our spirit with prayer, then we are taking care of God's creation. Spend some time with the Lord today about what this feast says to you about stewardship.
