16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!” The harsh words that begin today’s first reading are, unfortunately, as relevant for our modern world as when they were first written. The “shepherds” with responsibility for many public institutions and governments today so often seem motivated by greed and hunger for power rather than concern for the common good. Saddest of all is the global scourge of abuse within the churches, which has left many people disheartened, disillusioned and unable to trust. Sometimes it is very hard to cling to hope. Today’s readings, however, draw our attention to the source of our hope,. The one who will never abandon us, the “righteous Branch” in the house of David. Christ Jesus, threading from Ephesians assures us, in “our peace,” the one who has “broken down the dividing wall.. the hostility between us.” As Jesus called both Jews and Gentiles alike, so he calls us to reach across the various barriers that we humans have constructed. When we feel crushed and helpless because of the neglect, violence and abuses that human beings inflict on one another, may we turn to Jesus the peacemaker, the reconciler, the healer of all ills. By learning from him how to become peacemakers and healers ourselves, we can take steps towards mending our broken and suffering world.

GRANDPARENTS: PASSING ON THE FAITH. JULY 25, 2021 WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

Let us pause for a moment and give thanks for the blessings that grandparents are to the family. Throughout our lives they are models who influence and inspire us in so many ways. Our grandparents are an extraordinary gift that must be treasured. Perhaps the most powerful means of transmission of our faith is through the lived experience of those who have traveled the journey before us. The witness of their lived experience is often the greatest means for transmission of the faith.

What we learn from our Tota’s is to pray together as one voice, that silence is important in our prayer life. Prayer is a conversation and any conversation has two parts. Someone speaks, someone listens. Learn from them the beautiful traditional prayers of our faith such as the Lord’s Prayer, the Rosary and the St. Kateri Prayer. Read scripture together and remember prayer is an opportunity to connect with God on an on-going basis. Our elders are peacemakers, prayer warriors, teachers and leaders. LOOK WITH LOVE. Look with love on grandparents the world over. Protect them! They are a source of enrichment for families and for all of society. Support them! As they grow older, may they continue to be for their families strong pillars of Gospel faith, guardian of noble domestic ideals, living treasuries of sound religious traditions.

DISCOVERY AT THE KAMLOOPS INDIAN RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL ON THE TK’EMLÚPS TE SECWÉPMC FIRST NATION AND THE COWESSESS FIRST NATION:

The St. Regis Mission Church is re-opened with restrictions. We continue to be in shock at this very sad time in the history of Canada and the Church. We ask everyone to continue to pray for the souls of the innocent children that they may rest in peace.

ST. KATERI TEKAKWITHA PRAY FOR US:

We should follow Blessed Kateri’s example. She was very holy. Her life was dedicated to prayer. She offered sacrifices for others and cared for the sick and aged. We should pray more and more. We should help others. We should visit the sick and those that are old. This will please God. Let us now pray for her help ... Blessed Kateri, who loved God above all things, pray for us. Be close to us in our daily sorrows and cares. Keep our hearts free from hatred and the evils that surround us and tempt us. May we follow your example in the care for the sick and aged. Help us to follow the wisdom of our people. Help us to follow the teachings of God’s Son, Jesus, and the Church that He founded. Help us to respect the earth and lands of our ancestors. May we forgive all who have taken these lands from our peoples – for if we can forgive those who have injured us, then we know our merciful God will forgive all our failings. We ask this in Christ’s name. Amen.
