17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Christianity's deepest truth is that it is not a list of precepts but rather a relationship with the Triune God. To accept this invitation to participate in the divine life is to also elevate our human relationships. Through our one baptism and one faith we are united in the Mystical Body. In the Holy Eucharist, this union is intensified in the most efficacious and wondrous way.

Paul rouses us from our sleep to urge us to live a life worthy of the call we have been given. This call, which was slowly and lovingly revealed by God, is seen in today's readings. The call is to live a eucharistic life: a life that is not radically individualistic but radically ground up and poured out, in love, for God and neighbour. Receiving his body, blood, soul and divinity into our souls and bodies, we become living tabernacles. Our purpose is to bring Christ to others. As Elisha says, we are to give to the people to eat.

The Eucharist is the mystery of Christ's love, which is the most beautiful thing on earth. Nowhere is the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist clearer than in today's Gospel. All people hunger for God. We need to desire more than anything to forget ourselves and bring Jesus to the multitudes for the salvation of the world.

FEAST OF SAINT IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA: St. Ignatius Loyola was born in 1491, one of 13 children of a family of minor nobility in northern Spain. As a young man Ignatius Loyola dreamed of doing great deeds. But in 1521 Ignatius was gravely wounded in a battle with the French. While recuperating, Ignatius

Loyola experienced a conversion. Reading the lives of Jesus and the saints aroused Ignatius desires to do great things. Ignatius realized that these feelings were clues to God's direction for him. Over the years, Ignatius became expert in the art of spiritual direction. With a small group of friends, Ignatius Loyola founded the Society of Jesus, or the JESUITS. Ignatius conceived the Jesuits as "contemplatives in action." These Jesuits became great educators in the Catholic faith and missionaries to every corner of the world.

Here at the St. Regis Mission, it was the Jesuit Fathers who accompanied the Mohawks of Kahnawake who founded the St. Regis Mission in 1752. On this Feast of St. Ignatius, we remember the Jesuits who lovingly served our community over the years: Rev. P. Joseph Bourget (1895-1937), Rev. Conrad Hauser, S.J. (1937-1938), Rev. Michael Jacobs, S.J. (1938-1965), Rev. Francis Xavier Arsenault, S.J. (1965-1976), Rev. Gordon Bazinet, S.J. (1977-1979), Rev. Gerard LaVigne, S.J. (1979-1982), Rev. Thomas F. Eagan, S.J. (1982-1994), Rev. Thomas F. Fleig, S.J. (1982-1992), Rev. George H. Belgard S.J. (1995-2010) as well as, our beloved Jesuit Brothers, Brother Eustache Savard, SJ and Brother Bertrand Girard, SJ who assisted the St. Regis Mission for many years.

PRAYER TO ST. IGNATIUS: "Take, Lord, receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, my whole will, all that I have and all that I possess. You gave it all to me, Lord; I give it all back to you. Do with it as you will, according to your good pleasure. Give me your love and your grace; for with this I have all that I need."

DISCOVERY AT THE KAMLOOPS INDIAN RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL ON THE TK'EMLUPS TE SECWÉPEMC FIRST NATION AND THE COWESSESS FIRST NATION: The St. Regis Mission Church is re-opened with restrictions. We continue to be in shock at this very sad time in the history of Canada and the Church. We ask everyone to continue to pray for the souls of the innocent children that they may rest in peace.

CALL TO PRAYER: Father God, We ask that the cemeteries of these buried children will be found and documented. We ask, Lord, that You will help people remember and find the records that indicate where specific children are buried. May these initiatives remind us of the sanctity of life each child possesses. You knew each of these children by name. Help us to learn and remember their names. Bring comfort and peace to grieving families who long to know more about where their children's remains were buried so that they may have closure. Amen.

A PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH: Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son, in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ learned to be man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage and defend us from every evil. Amen

PRAYING FOR GOD'S COMFORT AND LOVE

You are with us always, even in the darkest of times, you bring us comfort and goodness. Your love and faithfulness endure forever. "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for with you, your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows. Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever." Psalm 23:4-6

PRAY FOR THE SICK AND SUFFERING

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP:

Ignatian spirituality encourages us to find God everywhere. Pope Francis says, "There is a mystical meaning to be found in a leaf, in a mountain trail, in a dewdrop, in a poor person's face." (#233) Suggestion:

take a small leaf and stay with it until you catch onto its connectedness with the one who made and sustains it.

DIocese of Valleyfield 2021-2022 Missionary Disciples to Spread Happiness to listen, serve, and volunteer. In this year dedicated to St. Joseph and his family let us be many in number to meet. There will be a Solemn Mass on the Feast of the Assumption of Mary at 4:30pm and community picnic to follow. Everyone is welcome.

MYSTERY OF THE EUCHARIST How blessed we are to have the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist! The more we appreciate and love this special gift from God, the closer we are to the Lord and to one another as members of the Body of Christ. Come join us in exploring the Church's teaching on the Real Presence in the Eucharist. Deacon Bill O'Brien will be presenting this 6-week series on the Holy Eucharist called "PRESENCE: The Mystery of the Eucharist." It will begin on August 4th at both 9:30 AM OR 6:30 PM each Wednesday for 6 weeks. Our sessions will be held in Brzana Hall, located in the lower Cathedral. Workbooks will be provided.
