25th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

It is amazing to see, when reading the Gospels, how the disciples can be miles away from understanding what Jesus says. At a very crucial time and for a second time, Jesus foretells his death and resurrection, which will be the apex of his life and ministry on earth. And yet, Marks tells us that the disciples “did not understand what he was saying.” The apostles, though chosen and taught by Jesus himself, are still unable to consider the mere perspective of him having to suffer and die. Such perspective is hardly compatible with their own expectations of triumphant Messiah. But not only that: how dare they discuss between themselves about who is the greatest among them? Such argument is so futile and so inappropriate. Yet, with great patience and with a great sense of pedagogy, Jesus reminds them that his own mission as Messiah is to be the servant of all and that true greatness can only be achieved through serving the little ones, whether in age or in social status. There is no reason for us to be scandalized and to blame the disciples. Such misunderstandings on their part can only be an instructive warning to us. We too are challenged by Jesus to become like him: “last of all and servant of all.”

SEPTEMBER 27: FEAST OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

was born in Pouy, France on April 24, 1581, and was ordained a priest on Sept. 23, 1600. Vincent devoted himself entirely to the alleviation of suffering of the poor. He established the Confraternities of Charity, later known as the Ladies of Charity, in 1617. In 1625, he founded the Congregation of the Mission, his community of priests and brothers. With Louise de Marillac, he cofounded the Daughters of Charity in 1633. Vincent died in Paris on Sept 27, 1660 and was canonized in 1737. Pope Leo XIII declared him patron saint of all works of charity.

THE “WHY” OF THE SITTING, STANDING, AND KNEELING OF A CATHOLIC MASS.

SITTING IS A POSTURE OF LISTENING. Catholics sit for the first reading, the Psalm, and the second reading. We also sit for the offering, and the homily (sermon).

THE STANDING: FOR PRAYER: When we pray the opening prayer (led by the Priest), say The Lord’s Prayer (as a congregation), and the Prayers of the Faithful (the prayer requests for the congregation).
FOR THE CREED: We stand as we say in unison the Apostles Creed. We stand to affirm our unity and our beliefs together as Christians.

FOR THE GOSPEL: Standing is also a sign of respect. We stand for the Gospel, since these are the words and deeds of Jesus himself.

FOR THE PROCESSION: We stand at the beginning and end of Mass, also as a sign of respect as the celebrant processes in to begin the Mass, and processes out once the Mass has ended.

THE KNEELING: When we enter Mass, we genuflect, where we bend and touch one of our knees to the floor. We are humbly acknowledging Jesus in the tabernacle, in the Eucharist.

We believe when Jesus said “This is my body,” that he meant it literally. So we acknowledge that by genuflection.

KNEELING IS A POSTURE OF RESPECT AND ADORATION.

Another time when we kneel is during the preparation for and before/after reception of the Eucharist (the Body and Blood of Christ in Holy Communion). So, we always kneel during this part of Mass.

THE FEAST OF THREE ARCHANGELS IS SEPTEMBER 29th.

The three archangels whom the Church honors by name are St. Michael, St. Gabriel, and St. Raphael. They are also the only three angels who are mentioned by name in Sacred Scripture. On September 29, we celebrate the feast of these three archangels - St. Michael (Who is like unto God), St. Gabriel (God is my Strength), and St. Raphael (God has healed). PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host by the power of God, drive into hell Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl around the world seeking the ruin and destruction of souls. Amen
