THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

There are times when we feel like the disciples in today's Gospel – not sure when or if the Lord might return and not knowing what we are supposed to do as we await. For me, this was during the pandemic when I was not able to enter a church for nearly a year in order to prevent the spread of COVID. I related to the disciples, not knowing what to do on the edge of such a precipice, without my routine connection to the Lord.

When reading how Jesus appeared to the disciples after the Resurrection, I reflect on times when I did not initially recognize Jesus' presence in my own life, especially during the early days and months of the pandemic. I am reminded that it is not always through his presence in the flesh, but rather the compassionate action of others, that we see Jesus in our lives even today.

Today's Gospel is not just about the challenges of recognizing the Lord. It is also about how Jesus approaches Peter, reminding him that he is forgiven and still invited to follow. This shows us that it is not enough to see Jesus through the actions of others. We must respond to Jesus' invitation and lead by our own actions, so that those whom we meet may also see the Lord. SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

(APRIL 29) One of four women honoured with the title of Doctor of the Church, Catherine was born in Siena, Italy, in 1347, her parents' twenty-fifth and youngest child. At the age of seven, following a vision of Christ in glory, she is reported to have vowed her virginity to God. She joined the Dominican Third Order in 1365, spending years in seclusion from the world, fasting and praying. In 1368, after a vision where Christ accepted her as his "bride," she felt called to carry this love to others. She cared for the poor and tended the sick; she corresponded with people from all walks of life, even counselling princes and popes; she was renowned as a peacemaker. She is especially remembered for her spiritual reflections.

PRAYER II FOR UKRAINE:

O Lord God of powers, and God of our salvation, O God, who alone work wonders: look down with mercy and compassion on Your humble servants, and out of love for mankind hearken and have mercy on us and on the land of Ukraine. Visit Your mercies and compassions upon Your humble servants, those who defend Ukraine and her much-suffering people, and hear us who fall down before Your deep compassion. For You are the health and victory and salvation of them that put their hope in You, and unto You do we send up glory: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.
