SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND ELDERLY

While Abraham pleads with God to spare the innocent in the first reading, Jesus teaches his disciples in the Gospel to pray by asking. This is uncomfortable for me. Isn't it rude to ask? Wouldn't it be presumptuous? And what if I ask and God says no?

But it isn't just asking God that can be hard for me. Sometimes I expect my partner to know what I need without my asking. Not wanting to burden others or be disappointed, I avoid asking for help. Noticing this resistance, a counsellor encouraged me to face my frustration with the question, "What do I need right now?" Often it takes me a bit of time and work to even name what I need. Once I know, then it is easier to ask.

When I ask God for what I think I need, a conversation opens between us. Sometimes my need is clarified, sometimes it is met, and sometimes I feel better just by naming the need and knowing that I am waiting to see how it will be answered.

In asking God and others more often: I was surprised that the most reassuring part of asking is not what is given, but that God embraces me in my need. This is not selfish or presumptuous: asking and receiving are gifts we give to those who love us. (Source: Living with Christ)

JULY 24, 2022 PRAYER FOR THE SECOND WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

I give thanks to you, Lord, for the blessing of a long life and to those who take refuge in You, Grant always to bear fruit. Forgive, O Lord, resignation and disillusionment, but forsake me not when my strength declines. Teach me to look with hope to the future you give me, to the mission you entrust to me and to sing your praises without end. Make me a tender craftsman of Your revolution, to guard with love my grandchildren and all the little ones who seek shelter in You. Protect, O Lord, Pope Francis and grant Thy Church to deliver the world from loneliness. Direct our steps in the way of peace. Amen.

Congratulations to our First Holy Communion Class 2022:

Steele Gray, Vance Gray, Tayte Mitchell, Olivia Papineau, Brenna Roundpoint and Rennyn Thompson. God Bless! Welcome to the St. Regis Mission family.

NIAWEN:KOWA for the many loving birthday wishes and prayers for Father Jerome on his 62nd birthday July 20th. God Bless!

Ste. Anne de Beaupré Pilgrimage for Papal Visit

The Pope's journey to Canada is scheduled to take place from July 24 -30, 2022. He will visit the cities of Edmonton, Québec and Iqaluit. "Dear brothers and sisters of Canada, as you know, I will come among you especially in the name of Jesus to meet and embrace the indigenous peoples". "Now I am about to make a penitential pilgrimage, which I hope, with God's grace, will contribute to the journey of healing and reconciliation already undertaken." The Pope is scheduled to deliver nine homilies and addresses and say two masses during his stay in Canada.. On July 28th, Pope Francis will be at Ste. Anne de Beaupré to celebrate Mass at the Ste. Anne de Beaupré Basilica with First Nations, Inuit, Métis and others.

The Archdiocese of Ottawa is sponsoring two buses to attend the papal mass. One bus will be leaving from Ottawa and the other from Cornwall. Forty-three Akwesasronon will be participating in the pilgrimage. The bus from Cornwall will be departing at 8:00 AM from the St. Columban Church parking lot for Quebec City. There will be a lunch stop at noon with the bus from Ottawa and Cornwall meeting together for a bag lunch (provided). Arrival in Quebec City will be 2:00pm. There will be ceremonies on the Plains of Abraham site in Quebec City from 3:30pm to 5pm. Supper will be on our own. The cost of the bus, driver, lunch and dinner, as well as overnight accommodation will be covered by the Archdiocese of Ottawa. We thank the Archdiocese for their generosity and support to the St. Regis Mission at this important time in church history.

Buses will leave the hotel at 6:00 AM July 28th for the Papal Mass at St. Anne de Beaupré. Indian Residential School survivors will have priority for seating in the Basilica, all others will be outside the Basilica. Departure for Cornwall will be 4:30pm and arrival back at St. Columban Church at 10:00 pm. For more information please contact RJ Dolly McDonald, Communications and Liaison at rosealmcdonald@gmail.com or via private messenger on the St. Regis Mission Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/stregission>. You may also call the St. Regis Mission Rectory Wednesday – Friday between 9am and 1pm at 613-575-2753.

Father Jerome's ANNUAL BLESSING of parishioner's cars was on the July 2-3rd weekend. LET US PRAY: Lend a willing ear, Lord God, to our prayers, and bless this vehicle with Your holy right hand. Direct Your holy angels to accompany it, that they may free those who ride in it from all dangers, and always guard them. Amen

LET US PRAY FOR ALL WHO ARE SUFFERING.

Lord, look with compassion on the sick and suffering, especially those at TSIIONKWANONHTSO:TE and IAHKIHHSOTHA and all our homebound Akwesasronon Elders during these pandemic times. Lord, if You will, heal: Steve Arquette, Peter Back, Hazel Bero, Jimmy Bero, Bruce Bombard, Marie Casey, Laurie Connors, Ashley Cook, Jerome Cook, Leona Cook, Francis Cree, Julia David, Marita Francis, William Francis, Carol Garrow, Martha George, Bennette Herne Grant, Bernadine Herne, Hilda Herne, Vernie and Toni Herne, Brian Jacobs, Christian Jock, Felicia and Hubert Jock, Joyce Kelso, Matthew Lamesse, Elizabeth Lazore, Hattie Jackson Lazore, Loran Lazore, Dr. Richard Loder, Viola Marshall, Jerry McDonald, Raymond McDonald, Memphis Pyke Mitchell, Norman and Nancy King, Herbie Oakes, Charles Peters, Lucille Peters, Richard Phillips, Helen Pyke, Sheila Ransom, Troy Skidders, Greg Snyder, Margaret Snyder, Jimmy Sunday, Marilyn Tarbell, Ashley Thompson and Donald Thompson. Console the grieving families of Tanner Jock and Gary Lafrance, may their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

The Lector's Training Session held on July 7, 2022 was a huge success. Sixteen parishioners attended the session presented by Anita Soltero, Assistant Director for Faith Formation and Catholic Schools, Diocese of Ogdensburg. The session focused on "Proclaiming the Word" and how to ensure that the Word of God is proclaimed during the liturgy in a vibrant and life-giving manner. The session also focused on public speaking skills and the many important elements of Lectoring Ministry. There will be a Part II Lector's Training held on August 25th, 2022 from 5-7pm to further explore the skills of Proclaiming the Word. Everyone is welcome!

LECTOR'S PRAYER: Dear Jesus, thank you for calling me to be a lector at Your Eucharistic celebrations. Help me to always take this role seriously, and diligently prepare myself for it, by studying the sacred texts before Mass, and by striving to be a better Christian. By my physical action of proclaiming Your Word, I AM the instrument through whom You become present to the assembly in Your Word, and through whom You impart Your teachings. Cleanse my heart and my mind, and open my lips, that I may worthily proclaim Your Word. Amen.
