PENTECOST SUNDAY

The images of wind and fire in today's first reading both draw us back to God breathing life into creation and the burning bush, and also commissioning us anew to bring healing in our time. God is ever ancient and ever new, reaching throughout human history to be reconciled with us. This outreach continues today at every moment, in every act of compassion, in every assembly – as Paul reminds us, the spirit of God dwells in us.

While most of us never had to fear for our lives in an upper room, we can identify with the apostle's anxiety. In these moments we might wish for tongues of fire to inspire us. How can we communicate the good news in a tongue that our children, our friends, our colleagues, our community and our decision makers will understand? When we are graced with the courage to step out in vulnerability, share authentically of ourself and allow others to share authentically, we can almost hear and feel the breath of new life.

Through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, we participate in Jesus' mission of peace and are called to reconcile with each other and God. May the Advocate guide us to overcome division and live in service of the common good.

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST:

The feast of Pentecost is a day of thanksgiving for the foundation of the Church, in which are contained all the treasures of supernatural riches, and through which all grace and redemption are given to men. Pentecost is a day of thanksgiving for the coming of the Holy Spirit and for the establishment of the sacrament of confirmation. It is a day on which we place a joyful and grateful trust in the operation of the Holy Spirit within us and thank Him for His inspiration and guidance. On this day we again place ourselves in the hands of the Holy Spirit with complete confidence. He should be the soul of our souls; He should reign in us, amid the ruins of our own fallen nature. Pentecost is a day of petition, a day on which we should implore the Holy Spirit for a full measure of His graces and gifts. With the Church we pray:

Come, Thou Holy Spirit, come, And from Thy celestial home, Send Thy light and brilliancy.

Come, Thou father of the poor, Come, Thou source of gifts secure, Come, our hearts, true radiancy.

Thou, of all consolers best, Thou, the soul's most welcome guest, Sweet refreshment constantly.

In our labor, rest most sweet, Grateful coolness in the heat, Solace in adversity.

O Thou light most pure and blest, Shine within the inmost breast Of Thy faithful company.

Lacking Thy divinity, Nothing good in man can be, Nothing but iniquity.

What is sordid, make Thou pure, What is wounded, do Thou cure, Slake now our aridity.

What is rigid, gently bend; What is frigid, warmly tend, Strengthen what goes erringly.

Fill Thy faithful who confide In Thy power to guard and guide, With Thy sevenfold mystery.

Give them virtue's sure reward, Give them Thy salvation, Lord, Give eternal felicity. AMEN.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE SANCTIFICATION OF PRIESTS JUNE 24th The World Day for the Sanctification of Priests takes place every year on the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and will be celebrated on Friday, June 24th. This day is about praying for your priest or priests in your parish and his sanctification, that is, his/their holiness! Every day our priests pray for us and our intentions when they preside over Mass, hear confessions, baptize our children, or bury our loved ones. Our priests need our prayers, and you should tell them that you are praying for them. You never know what your parish priest or pastor is going through, sacrificing out of love for his parishioners.
