29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When I was young my parents took my siblings and me on a road trip around Lake Superior. I remember being amazed at the lake's various shores, especially the Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore in Michigan that the waves, over time, had shaped into picturesque rock formations.

Today's Gospel speaks of perseverance in prayer. As I was reflecting on Jesus' words, the image of the waves sculpting the lakeshore came to mind and I was reminded of the power of steadfast prayer.

Because prayer is a means by which we grow in relationship with God, prayer is surely transformative. We may not see it immediately, but the Lord is constantly working in our lives. Our prayers, just like every wave, have an effect. They can transform fear into courage, weakness into strength, uncertainty into confidence, loneliness into friendship. There is no intention too small or too great for our Lord. He longs for us to come to him and meet him in prayer. As you reflect on your prayer life, know that God hears you and he will come to your aid.

Like waves rushing constantly to the shoreline, may we persistently run to our loving Father with all our intentions. Then, let us wait in faith for the fruits of our prayers, certain that God will act in our favour. (livinginwithchrist.ca)

For those families who lost loved ones during this past year, you are invited to come and participate in this special celebration of Holy Mass for the deceased.

INDIGENOUS CATHOLIC RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP (ICRF)

UNITY PRAYER: Father, Great Spirit, You have always been here in this land. For untold generations, You sustained your people through gifts of Your love. You revealed Yourself in the ancient spiritual ways of Your people. You sent your Mother to the Talking Eagle, St. Juan Diego Cuauhtlatotzin, to reveal the fullness of Your love in Your Son. Since then, holy people throughout the centuries, like St. Kateri Tekakwitha, have become beacons of Your grace. And You continually call us to conversion. You have given us holy examples, like Nicholas Black Elk and Joseph Chiwatenhwa, who clarify the meaning of the undying love of Your Son Jesus Christ. Help us as we gather anew to honor the legacy of our ancestors. Help us as we seek to cultivate the gift of Indigenous Catholic Faith, that it may fully shine in the Universal Church and in a broken world. Help us as we seek to shine in all we do with the love of Jesus Christ.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP: Laudato Si' writing speaks often about the poor people who are living in poverty. Pope Francis stresses the plight of the poor. Living in poverty often encompasses disease and loss of self-worth. Take time to discover what is happening in your local neighborhood as well as the global neighborhood. Seek a way to make a change however small it may be. Where do you sense the Lord might be calling you to make a difference this week?

St. Teresa (1515-1582) was born in Avila and died in Alba, Spain. At the age of eighteen she joined the Carmelite Order and chose Christ as her heavenly Spouse. With the help of St. John of the Cross she reformed most of the Carmelite convents and founded new ones. OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY!

During the month of October, there will be a recitation of the Rosary before Mass each weekend. The Family Rosary is a powerful prayer to ask Our Blessed Mother to protect our families and preserve each with love and unity. The presence and protection of our Mother Mary has immense power — requested, channeled, and honored through the rosary. Her immaculate intercession has won wars and conquered hearts. After the feast day was established, the entire month of October was dedicated to the rosary in 1884 by Pope Leo XIII in his encyclical Superiore Anno.

OCTOBER – RESPECT LIFE MONTH

Every October the Universal Church celebrates Respect Life Month. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, we are asked to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life.
