STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY

MESSAGE FROM BISHOP TERRY LAVALLEY:

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ: "Give to others, and God will give to you. Indeed, you will receive a full measure, a generous helping, poured into your hands—all that you can hold. The measure you use for others is the one that God will use for you." (Luke 6:38)

As Christian stewards, we are called to receive God's gifts gratefully, to cultivate them responsibly, to share them in justice and love with others and to return them with increase to the Lord. We must continue to stir into flame the many gifts God has given to each of us because He intends each one of us to use our unique gifts and talents to bring others and ourselves closer to the Kingdom of God.

This weekend is Stewardship Sunday in the Diocese of Ogdensburg. I invite you to prayerfully reflect upon the gifts that God has chosen for you and to speak with your pastor about the various ministries in your parish in which you can participate. I encourage you to become energized and engaged in those ministries. Let us ask ourselves, "How can I use my gifts and talents to serve my parish, community and God?" I am grateful to the many women, men and youth who are currently serving in parish ministries. You are enriching the spiritual lives of your sisters and brothers in Christ by your ministry.

Please also open your heart to encourage and invite others to join in your parish ministries. Your words of encouragement will plant the seed of faith in others as we all answer God's call to serve.

Thank you for your active participation in the faith life of your parish. May God continue to bless the work of your hands and may His blessings be upon you and your family.

Faithfully yours in Christ, Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley Bishop of Ogdensburg

NATIVE AMERICAN MONTH: November is Native American Heritage Month, or as it is commonly referred to, American Indian and Alaska Native Heritage Month. The month is a time to celebrate rich and diverse cultures, traditions, and histories and to acknowledge the important contributions of Native people especially in the Catholic Church. Heritage Month is also an opportune time to educate parishes and congregations about tribes, to raise a general awareness about the unique challenges Native people have faced both historically and in the present, and the ways in which tribal members and citizens have worked to conquer these challenges.

NATIVE AMERICAN PRAYER

O Great Spirit, whose voice I hear in the winds and whose breath gives life to all the world, hear me. I come before you as one of your children. I am small and weak. I need your strength and wisdom. Let me walk in beauty and make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunset. Make my hands respect the things you have made, my ears sharp to hear your voice. Make me wise, so that I may know the things you have taught my people, the lessons you have hidden in every leaf and rock. I seek strength, not to be superior to my brothers, but to be able to fight my greatest enemy: myself. Make me ever ready to come to you with clean hands and straight eyes, so that when life fades as a fading sunset, my spirit may come to you without shame. Amen. + ~Chief Yellow Hawk of the Sioux Nation And may Almighty God bless us: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

FALLEN LEAVES Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay for a while and leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never the same. Each of us has loved ones, family and friends, who have left footprints on our hearts. We cannot forget them in our prayers. Holy Mass, the Memorial of Christ's Passion, Death and Resurrection is the greatest gift we can give to our departed loved ones. During the month of November remember them in the Masses offered at the St. Regis Mission Church.

FALLEN LEAVES forms are available on the table at the entrance of the church. Please drop your completed form in the basket provided. A donation would be greatly appreciated. The names of your loved ones will be read during the weekend Masses throughout the month of November.

PRAYER FOR THE SOULS IN PURGATORY Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. AMEN. Prayer of St. Gertrude the Great.

NOVEMBER 8TH, 2022 NATIONAL INDIGENOUS VETERANS DAY.

National Indigenous Veterans Day is an opportunity to recognize the military service and sacrifices made by First Nations, Inuit, and Métis Peoples. This acknowledgement day was established in Canada in 1994. More than 12,000 Indigenous Peoples have served in the First and Second World Wars, as well as the Korean War. This Indigenous commitment spans over 200 years of military services. Niawen:kowa to our Indigenous Veterans whom we remember and honour for their brave sacrifices, achievements and for their valiant fight for freedom and peace.
